

Seqirus Travel Grants – ISBT 2017

On behalf of ANZSBT it is my pleasure to announce that Seqirus is offering two sponsored travel grants to allow scientist members of ANZSBT to attend the upcoming ISBT, Copenhagen to be held June 17-21 2017.

The awards from Seqirus will cover airfares, accommodation and congress registration and recipients will be chosen by a selection committee of the ANZSBT.

Selection Criteria

If you wish to be considered for one of these grants please send a brief resume describing how you meet the following criteria:

- Are a financial member of ANZSBT (as of 1 May 2017)
- Are currently working as a scientist in an immunohaematology laboratory/blood bank in Australia or New Zealand
- Have at least 10 years relevant experience in immunohaematology/blood banking
- Have not received a Seqirus (formerly bioCSL) travel grant in the previous two years
- Are able to demonstrate your passion for immunohaematology/blood banking by:

In 250 words or less, explaining why you want to go to the ISBT international congress and what you plan to learn/achieve by attending the meeting.

Please Indicate whether you have submitted an abstract to the meeting (not a requirement).

NOTE: A condition of the award is that you agree to present what you have learned at the Congress to your laboratory and/or to the broader transfusion community on your return.

Applicants are advised to confirm with their manager that acceptance of this travel grant will not pose any conflict of interest.

Please email your completed resume to the ANZSBT Secretariat (anzsbt@anzsbt.org.au) with "Seqirus 2017 Travel Grants" in the message header.

Closing date for applications is: COB Monday, 15 May 2017.

ANZSBT gratefully acknowledges Seqirus' long-standing commitment to the ongoing education of the immunohaematology community and believes that providing these sponsorships offers the Society's scientist members a valuable opportunity to attend one of the premier events for the transfusion medicine and cellular therapies sector.

Good luck!
