

kindly sponsored by CSL Behring

The aim of the award is to recognise and foster significant contributions to transfusion medicine through efforts in one or more of the following areas:

- Research into the nature and roles of blood products
- Education of the medical community and special interest groups in the field of transfusion medicine
- Encouraging and promoting the importance of blood and plasma donation and their appropriate clinical use leading to better healthcare in Australia or New Zealand

Nominations are sought from a cross section of the healthcare community for exemplary work that has been carried out in Australia or New Zealand. Nominations must come from a proposer and seconder with letters of support from both. The proposer and/or seconder must be current financial members of the Society.

The award will be presented at the Annual Scientific Meeting of the Australian and New Zealand Society of Blood Transfusion. The award has a monetary value of $5000.
