

James Isbister Award 2025

Kindly sponsored by the NBA

The aim of the James Isbister Award is to recognise an individual who has made a significant contribution in one or more of the following areas:

- Research into the nature and roles of blood and blood products.
- Education of the medical community and special interest groups in the field of transfusion medicine and/or patient blood management.
- Encouraging and promoting the importance of blood and plasma donation and their appropriate clinical use leading to better healthcare in Australia or New Zealand.

Nominations are sought from members for a person from across the healthcare community whose work in the field of transfusion within Australia and/or New Zealand exemplifies the values of the Society.

Nominations must come from a proposer and seconder with letters of support from both. The proposer and seconder must be current financial members of the Society.

The award has a monetary value of $5000 and will be presented at an appropriate time and after consultation with the awardee.

Please complete the attached nomination form, include a Curriculum Vitae and send by email to: anzsbt@anzsbt.org.au

Nominations close COB, Thursday 31st July 2025
